

About The Company

Royal Ambulance is a well-known healthcare & EMT service company in San Francisco Bay area. Their EMTs are trained to exhibit care, compassion and truly engage patients to lessen a patient's anxiety and improve their well-being.

DRIVEN BY EXCEPTIONAL PATIENT EXPERIENCES

By treating people right, we strive to be the highlight of a patient's day. Royal Ambulance (RPA) is focused on patient care, compassion and truly engage patients to lessen a patient's anxiety and improve their well-being.

Why They Hired Us

Royal Ambulance first asked for a hero section change and adding two landing pages to their current website, then we migrated their Onward Rides website to Wix and after exceeding their expectations we were asked to migrate their current website to Wix in 2-3 weeks. They also asked for their billing to be made on Wix for the bill form. Their former website was on WordPress and we transferred it to the Wix platform and sent step-by-step guide videos & pdf so that the client could easily make edits. We had to use a third-party app for their billing on Wix. We managed to transfer all designs, animations, and custom sliders to Wix with all its limitations. Creating the animations and sliders was a big challenge, we innovated timed lines for the animation and used Velo for designing the sliders and broke limitations. Royal Ambulance is now a fast & user-friendly website with advanced features and a great optimized mobile design.

Royal Benefits

Award Winning Culture

It's no secret that awesome workplaces have happier people!

Royal is honored to have received so many Best Places to Work Awards. We see this as a reflection of our Culture and our People! And they come with some bragging rights too, not only for the organization but also for our Team Members.

These awards can't be bought, or simply applied for. Each award we have earned has been a result of an anonymous employee survey, asking for honest feedback, and covering every category that matters most to an employee. That's what makes them so special. Your voice and your experience at Royal defines our brand, our reputation, and our culture!

We love working here, but don't just take our word for it!
